10/17 KTVQ Host: Jay Kohn
Guest: Craig Wilson, MSU-Billings Political Science Professor
/ Q2 Political Analyst

Today's program was a pre-view of the 2010 November election , two weeks prior to election day.

Craig and I discussed all the ballot measures that will be on this year's ballot, the impact the Tea Party Movement could have on the outcomes, and the upcoming MSU-B poll that will be conducted over the coming week.

We also discussed the make-up of the Montana Legislature and the challenge each party faces in securing a majority in the Montana House & Senate.

10/24 KBZK

10/31 KPAX Host: Russ Thomas
Guests: Dr Nancy Eyler(Endocrinologist),
Janice Tate (Registered Diabetic
Dietician), Shirley Schneider (Registered Nurse,
Diabetic Nutritionist)

November is National Diabetic Awareness month. Diabetes is a disease that affects people of all ages. Type I or Juvenile Diabetes is generally diagnosed in children, teens, and young adults, while Type II Diabetes is found in middle aged and older adults. The month of November has been designated as Diabetes month to raise awareness of what diabetes entails, how it affects the lives of so many whether as a diabetic or as those directly related to someone with Diabetes, and how Diabetes can be monitored and taken care of so that those affected can live a happy, normal life. It also covers warning signs, and how to adapt to a Diabetic lifestyle in a healthy and understanding way.

11/21 FILL PROGRAM

11/28 KBZK Host: Dan Boyce
 Guest: Dr. Barney Old Coyote

Reporter Dan Boyce interviews Dr. Barney Old Coyote, the most decorated Native American who served in World War II. The program begins with Boyce tossing to two previously aired stories to provide background for longer segments of an interview at Old Coyote's home. Old Coyote, 87, describes his wartime experience as a B-17 gunner. He served right alongside his brother Henry and tells the story of their enlistment, training, and service. Old Coyote tears up several times throughout the interview, recounting some of his more horrific experiences. He ends by saying everything he did was for his family, his country, and his Crow people.

12/5 KPAX Host: Angela Marshall
 Guest: Dave Lowenwarter Fill the Gap

Temperatures are cold all across Montana. And, that has us tightening the windows, closing the doors and turning the heat on in our homes. But, you may not know that some of that energy may be escaping, costing you money and hurting your health. Angela Marshall sits down with the owner of Fill the Gap in Missoula, Dave Loewenwarter, who gives us an inside look at a Heat Loss Evaluation and who should take advantage of this service. Mr. Loewenwarter also offers some quick, easy and simple steps you can take to make your home or business more energy efficient and outlines tax credits and rebates associated with getting a heat loss evaluation.
